I WANT TO PET YOUR PETS!

Just keep swimming!

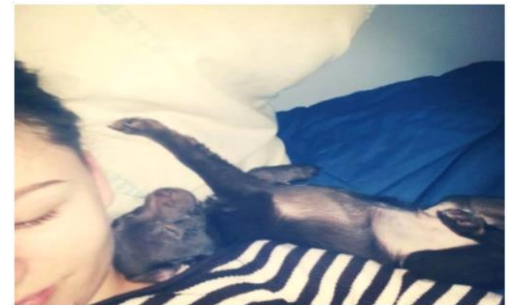

by Brandy Osborn

Hello to all of my Insight Oregon Students! It is November and with that comes the approaching holiday season and LOTS of COLD weather! I don't know about you, but I much prefer the SUN! November also puts us at the mid-point of the semester and a time to check progress. Your teachers and staff, plus I of course, are taking a really close look as to how you are doing in your classes. Our goal is help you do the best you can and keep you on track.

The most important thing for you to remember ... WE ARE HERE TO HELP YOU! Please remember that! Do not lose your momentum, do not become fearful ... all is NOT lost! You have plenty of time to keep going and catch-up, if needed. And, you have us ... talk to your teachers, talk to your academic support team – Jim, Mandie, Melissa, and talk to me! We are here ... we are reachable ... and we want to see you succeed!

We know YOU CAN DO THIS!

A NOTE FROM MS. HOWINGTON!

Hey Everyone! After a slight dip in class connect attendance, in the last three weeks attendance in live sessions more than doubled! That is AWESOME! It's so important to attend those sessions, whether you do it live or watch the recording. Keep up all your hard work, and let's keep bringing up those attendance numbers!

The House in Winter's Wood

by Janette – 8th grade

I run across winter's wood, covered in wondrous white, the branches they sway overhead, pulled by tomorrow morning's ice.

My boots make deep holes in the peaceful white, as I trek across to see in the fading light.

The wildwood is alive with noise, the gentle thud of falling snow and ice, I finally reach my destination, a house with a smoky rope, leading into the sky.

My feet were cold to the bone, my hood wasn't very dry, but now I'm warm, and my hood is placed upon the mantle, drying as the fire crackles.

Thank goodness I have friends in Winter's Wood, or my hike would have ended in a frosty demise.

6th grader Christian shares a tree he created for the newsletter. Thank you!

You'll be Alright

by MaKayla – 10th grader

Just as the last glimmer of hope fades,
The girl in tears sees a familiar face

A boy hiding his pain,
Through what feels like this constant rain

They talk and they laugh,
About crazy little things

The girl doesn't feel so sad

Even when the bullies try bring her down

She has a friend,
That picked up her crown

Her smile shines through the dreary night

Everyone should know that they can fight.

Bullies are everywhere
But you'll be alright
